A BRIEF HISTORY OF ARSENAL TECHNICAL

The Arsenal (ca. 1864)

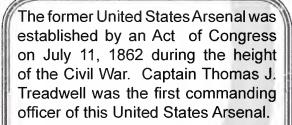

The Powder Magazine (ca 1860's)

Civil War Guard House (ca. 1865)

Allen Hall, "The Barn" (ca 1869)

In 1903, the United States government stopped using the Arsenal. Another school was attempted, but arguments over land ownership eventually led to the failure of the school.

In 1912, Arsenal Technical High School was founded to alleviate overcrowding in Shortridge and Manual High Schools. Milo Stuart was Arsenal Technical's first principal.

The Barracks (ca 1860's)

West Residence (ca 1865)

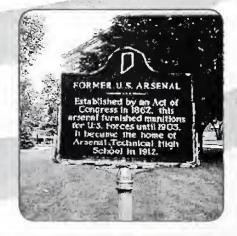

Lone Hall (ca 1900's)

Stuart Hall (ca 1900's)

Morgan Hall (ca 1900's)

CHANGES AT TECH

Junior Varsity

The 2006 season was to be a season of unfinished business and as we got underway it proved to be just that as our seniors lead the team to it's first 3-0 start since 1994. The 2006 edition of Titan football had a few set back during the season before going into the sectional and pulling out a sectional win.

Success is measured in win and losses for the 2006 they went 7-4 best record since 1994.

Harvey

Elwood Dowd, the main character and played by Edric Mitchell, had an imaginary friend, a six-and -ahalf foot rabbit. His sister, Veta, acted by senior Maire Flood, tried to have him committed to a sanitarium to spare her daughter, Myrtle Mae, played by Jessica Friedly, from embarrassment. Problems arise, however, when Veta is misinterpreted by two of the doctors, played by seniors, Curtis Bard and Allias Jones. and she is assumed to be on the verge of lunacy. A nurse, acted by senior Abby Adams, tries to keep some order to all of the turmoil and falls for the younger doctor. Judge Omar Gaffney, senior Francis Elliott, defends Veta. With the help of a taxí cab driver, senior Monika Wathen, everyone realizes that Marvey isn't so bad after all. Additional supporting roles included seniors Emily O'Connell, Desmon Clark, and junior Amber Harris. Senior Dana Harkins was the Student Director.

The Stage Design Class and after school Stage Crew included Dennis Baumann, Clairessa Brown, Patricia Demaree, John Fields, David Haddix, Kyle Hubbard, Britttany Lafara, Jeddy Lewis, Conor Mather-Light, Zachary McGuire, Yasmin Navaro, Erik Oprisu, Rav'n Partee, Dominique Patrick, Michael Smith, Brendan Tiernan, Ivy Thomas, Mahana Vaden, and Charles Walls.

The Wizard of Oz

This Year's faculty musical was none other than, "The Wizard of Oz." Leading roles were played by Mrs. Trombley as Dorothy, Mr Baldwin as Lion, Mr. Jones as Tin Man, Mr. Armbruster as Scarecrow, Mrs. Laker as the Wicked Witch of the West, Mrs. Burdette as Glenda the Good Witch, Mr. Jessup as Uncle Henry, Mrs. Miller as Auntie Em, and Mr Jensen as the Wizard of Oz. Many other faculty members were involved as munchkins and other roles. Look for them as your favorite munchkin.

Mr. Arnold's stage crew class did a wonderful job with the sets and running the show.

JROTC

Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps

What is JROTC?
The Junior Reserve Officers' Training Corps
(JROTC) is a program sponsored by the United States Armed Forces in high schools across the United States. The program was originally created as part of the 1916 National Defense Act and was later expanded under the 1964 ROTC Vitalization Act

The Color Guard posts and presents the national colors (American Flag) at athletic events, school functions, school board meetings, and many community events in the Indianapolis area.

The Armed Exhibition Drill team performs non-military drill movements (spinning) with de-militarized Springfield M-1903 nifles. The team competes in area drill meets and additionally conducts exhibitions for community functions.

The IDR team focuses on the snap and precision of basic military drill movements as prescribed by FM 3-21.5.

The Raiders receive training in rappelling, land navigation, physical fitness and other related military subjects.

The members of the Rifle Team fire Daisy Model-853 air rifles in matches against other JROTC units in Indiana.

Our all-school musical, "Joseph and the Amazing Technicolor Dreamcoat," was an amazing success and played the last weekend in February! This colorful production featured great musical talent, exuberant dancing, fantastic costumes, imaginative stage sets, and a cast of almost 100 students. We even did an "encore" presentation in mid-March! The title role of Joseph was played by senior Patrick Meyer, and Abby Adams starred as The Narrator. Junior Allan Summers brought down the house as Pharaoh "The King." Two choruses made up the rest of the cast, along with our excellent orchestra.

In memory of John E. Baker III

Son, brother, and friend.

"Dream big. A mind is a terrible thing to waste."
- John Baker, Class of 2007

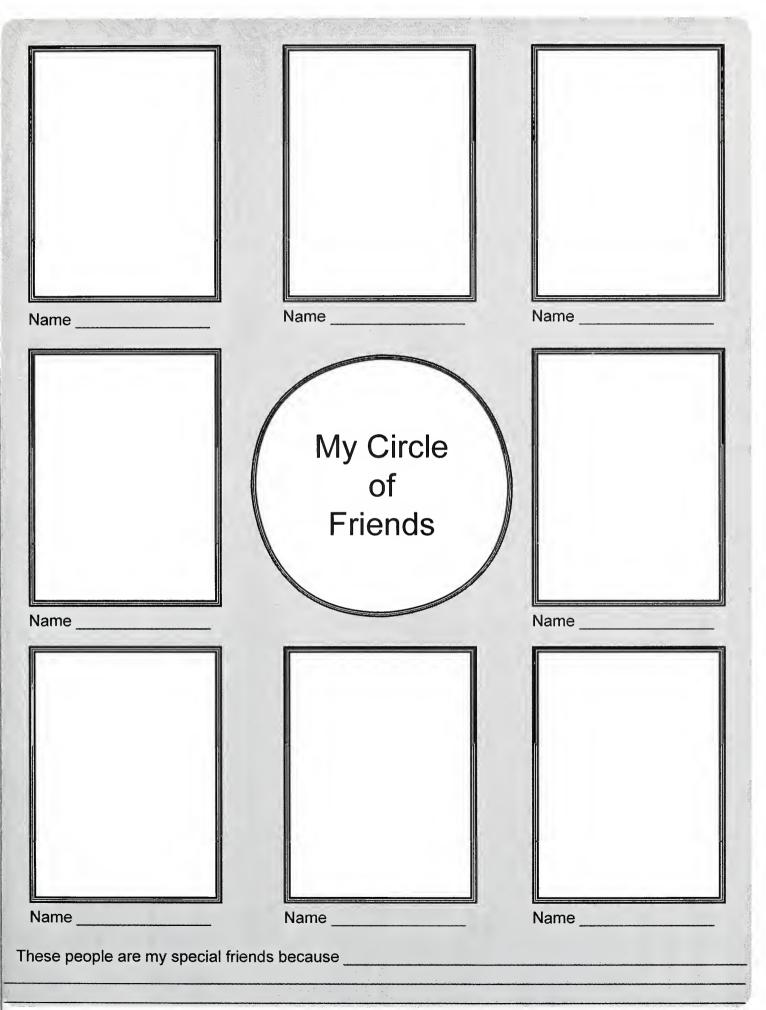

Although confined to a wheelchair, John was one of the most energetic, active members of the Class of 2007. His vitality, upbeat attitude, outgoing personality, and strong determination set an example for all of us. We shall miss him and never forget him.

2006-2007 A Memorable School Year For Me!
